What's a Roundtable Meeting?

Round tables are set up with a few AA members at each table. Not knowing the discussion format, a card with one of the 12 Steps is passed out at each table face down. Each table can elect a "Chairperson" who turns the card over and whatever step is shown, then those members can go around the table and discuss that step. After approximately 30 minutes, the 12 Step cards are reshuffled and one card is drawn for each table and placed down, turned up, and the roundtable discussion continues. The format can be changed to allow everyone a chance to share their experience, strength, and hope during the last half of the meeting. There will always be a 1st Step Table.
